

DNKS meeting & General assembly

March 10th. 2017 kl. 9:00 - 17:30.

Charlottelunden, Hjørringgade 12C, 2100 København Ø
(close by "Nordhavn Station")

"Vascular Neurosurgery"

An update on vascular neurosurgery & treatment indications

Morning program:

- |                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 09.00 - 09.30: | Coffee and exhibition                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 09.30 - 09.35: | Introduction by professor Jens Chr. H. Sørensen, Aarhus University Hospital, Chairman of the Danish Neurosurgical Society.                                                                                                                                           |
| 09.35 - 10.15  | "The unruptured cerebral aneurism. Clip, coil or pill?"Professor. Gabriel Rinkel, University Hospital of Utrecht.                                                                                                                                                |
| 10.20 - 11.00  | Coffee and exhibition                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 11.00 - 11.30  | Endovascular treatment of the cerebral aneurism. New trends.Overlæge Leif Sørensen, Aarhus University Hospital                                                                                                                                                   |
| 11.35 - 12.05  | Unruptured middle cerebral artery bifurcation aneurysms. Clinical outcome and obliteration rate after microsurgical clip ligation and stent assisted endovascular treatment. A single center experience. Overlæge Troels Halfeld Nielsen, Odense University Hospital |
| 12.10 - 12.30  | En fælles national database for SAH, behandling og patientforløb.Læge, lektor Ronni Mikkelsen, Aarhus University Hospital                                                                                                                                        |
| 12.30 - 13.30  | Frokost og udstilling                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |

Eftermiddags program:

- |                      |                             |
|----------------------|-----------------------------|
| 13.30 - 15.00 | DNKS foredragskonkurrence.  |
| 15.00 - 15.30 | Kaffe og udstilling. |
| 15.30 - 17.30 | DNKS' generalforsamling     |

DNKS håber, at se dig til en spændende dag med erfaringsudveksling og nyt fra et neurokirurgisk emneområde der er i kontinuerlig udvikling.

Vel mødt