

Suomen Neurokirurginen Yhdistys
Finnish Neurosurgical Society

The 70th Scandinavian Neurosurgical Congress, in Tampere, Finland

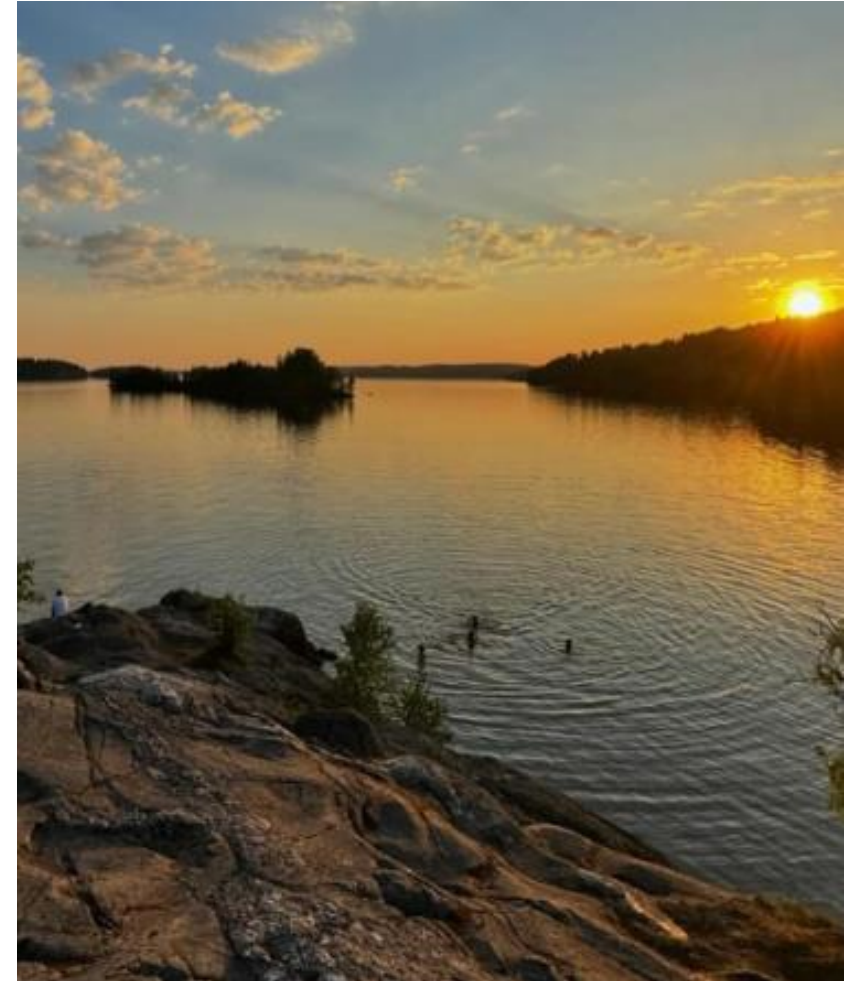

May 11-13th, 2026

The Wellbeing Services
County of Pirkanmaa

Tampere, Finland

- Tampere region:
approx. 435 000 inhabitants
- Largest inland city in Nordic countries
- One of the fastest growing region in Finland

The 2026 SNS in Tampere, Finland

Getting there:

- Helsinki-Vantaa is the closest international airport with connections to Europe, US, and Japan
- Train connection from Helsinki-Vantaa international airport takes you to Tampere in approx. 1,5 hours

	May 11th	May 12th	May 13th	Hands-on courses
Morning	Opening + Plenary 1: Global & local challenges for healthcare systems	Plenary 2: Neurosurgical training and education - what should it be like?	Plenary 3: Introducing AI and robotics to the neurosurgical practice	Introduction to basic training for microsurgical skill Introduction to new endovascular techniques Skull Base and Vascular neurosurgery Hands on cadaver course
Noon	Two parallel keynote lectures	Two parallel keynote lectures	Two parallel keynote lectures	Minimally invasive spine surgery Hands on cadaver course
Afternoon	Parallel sessions: Spine / NeuroICU / Neuronursing 1/ Neuronursing 2	Parallel sessions: Skull base / LGG / Neuronursing 1/ Neuronursing 2	Parallel sessions: Vascular / Pediatric Neuronursing 1/ Neuronursing 2	AI-assisted simulations for surgical practice Simulation training for acute events Extending the indications of DBS
Evening	Opening reception	Conference dinner	Closing words

SNS 2026 in Tampere, Finland

May 11-13th with parallel hands-on training courses from May 11-13th

Photo: Visit Tampere